A screenshot of a mobile website for "EliteReviser" under the "ACADEMIC" category. The background is a blue-tinted image of a university building. The text reads: "You want to have your journal article, research proposal, presentation, abstract, or research paper, edited and proofread." A yellow "PLACE ORDER" button is at the bottom.

A screenshot of a mobile website for "EliteReviser" under the "CORPORATION" category. The background is a gold-tinted image of a modern office building. The text reads: "You want to have your business proposal, business plan, business document, report, website post, or blog, edited and proofread." A yellow "PLACE ORDER" button is at the bottom.

This color arrangement (that is, blue, gold, blue, gold, etc) for the boxes on the “mobile” rendition is fine. This is OK, but the desktop has to change.

Make all these heading capital letters. Increase the font size without causing “Non-English speaker” run into two lines.

They must be of the same size.

The heading is too close to the content.

Done

The contents are too close to one another; leave some gap between them.

Resume/CV

Centralize the heading here.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The following selection criteria are considered if you want to work for us:

- ▶ Native English speaker.
- ▶ Ability to adopt American, British, or Canadian English.
- ▶ At least a bachelor's degree, but a graduate degree is preferred.
- ▶ Experience proofreading and editing documents in various disciplines.
- ▶ Ability to meet stringent deadlines, if necessary.
- ▶ Advanced skills in Microsoft Word 2010 or above.
- ▶ Employment experience as a proofreader or an editor.
- ▶ Any professional certification in the industry is an advantage.

The gap between each bullet point here is a little too much. Please, reduce.

I do not like how the second lines are under the bullets.
